Hello

Wow! I can't believe it's Christmas. I seem to have lost a few months this year and I am sure most of you felt this at times too. This is all the more reason to seize the day!

This year has been a year of accomplishments for me and letting go. I think the biggest lesson came when I lost the hard drive on my PC and years of work too. (Yes I did have a back-up and it didn't work). So with grace I surrendered to the change thrust upon me. Great way to get a clean slate. My beloved book that is a work-in-progress also happened to go with the hard drive so hence the universes way of guiding me to take a slightly different approach.

So a reminder to accept change when it comes a little unexpected and go with the flow. There is always a reason and most often it's the universe's way of keeping us on track with our divine plan.

I have managed to produce a Guided Meditation CD which I was inspired to do several years ago. It is on sale from the 19th December 2009 and is available from the centre or website.

Lastly, a big thank you to all of you for your support throughout the year. I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a healthy, happy and harmonious 2010.

Love Angela
